

Frequently Asked Questions

How long will it take someone to respond to my request?

Someone from the Life Focus team will respond to your request within 24-48 hours.

Where will sessions take place?

All care sessions take place on Destiny church grounds.

Who is going to serve me?

The Life Focus team pairs you with a volunteer who is suited to address your circumstance. The team is made up of volunteer ministers who are shaped and trained to serve Destiny members in this way.

Can I sign up for consecutive sessions?

We normally schedule 3 sessions per request.

Do I have to pay for this service?

No. You will not have to pay to receive help from the Life Focus team. They are a volunteer staff.

Are the volunteers trained?

All volunteers participate in the American Association of Christian Counseling training Caring for People God's Way. Although many of our volunteers have degrees and/or experience in counseling, this team does not offer professional counseling. The Life Focus team is a group of lay ministers who offer their services on a volunteer basis.

When are care volunteers available?

Volunteers are available during evening hours only.

I'm not a member of Destiny. Can I still use this service?

For liability reasons, Life Focus serves only Destiny members.
