

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I have my wedding at Destiny?

Currently, Destiny does not host weddings on the church campus.

Is there a cost associated with pre-marital care?

There is a nominal fee for the class. This is set to cover the cost of your class materials.

How often is the pre-marital class offered?

Pre-marital sessions run throughout the year.

What if I am already married and currently need care?

Pre-marital sessions are designed for engaged persons only. However, as a member of Destiny, you can request to speak with a volunteer from our Life Focus team.

Are there moral prerequisites for enrolling in the class?

Pre-marital preparation is an extended process of the discovery of self, God, and the marriage covenant. The classes and curriculum materials are designed for you to expose yourself to God and to your prospective spouse. To enroll in the class, each couple must be willing to abstain from physical intimacy and living together.

What if my fiancé is not a member of Destiny?

Pre-marital classes are offered only to members of Destiny.

What is the format of pre-marital care?

Pre-marital preparation is an extended time that includes class sessions in a group format as well as one-on-one sessions. This guarantees individual time with the instructors.

Who does the care?

Married couples who show the evidence of having Christ-centered marriages are trained to facilitate our premarital preparation sessions. If you would like more information, please click on the link below.
